

DEMOSTENES "MO" MOLINAR
15 June 1932—23 April 2011

Demostenes "Mo" Molinar, born June 15, 1932, age 78. Died April 23, 2011 at home. He was born in Colón, Panamá. Came to San Pedro, California in 1953. He moved to Florida in 1958. Before retiring he worked as a scuba diver/treasure hunter for Mel Fisher several years, including the discovery of the ATOCHA in 1985. He owned and operated Mo Divers.

Mo is survived by his wife Mary; his sons Dexter and Demostenes (Charlie) Jr.; his daughters Estel of Panamá and Tanita and Jolla [Ft. Pierce]; sister Adelaida Aikens [and] brother José Molinar of Panamá; three granddaughters and two great-grand sons; a host of other relatives. He was loved by many loyal, devoted friends.

The family of the late Demostenes "Mo" Molinar would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to everyone who rendered any acts of kindness during this time. Each flower, telephone call, card and hug is very much appreciated.

It is friends like you who are such a comfort to our family at this time. Thank you again for your kindness and sympathy. —From the program for Mo's service on 28 April 2011, with permission of the Molinar Family. Photo provided by Buddy Martin.
